

Introductions

Our Mission:

To publish a student newspaper which informs the Southern New Hampshire University community of important university-related matters in a timely and unbiased manner.

The Penmen Press also offers students real-world experience in all aspects of newspaper publication.

What We Do

Write articles pertaining to the SNHU Campus and Community

Post content on social media

Take photos (and lots of them!)

Publish issues in print and online

(Tune out JB's Dad jokes)

Host events and collaborate with other organizations

Make connections with the SNHU Community

Make connections with each other, here on The Penmen Press

(a.k.a. staff bonding; we have lots of fun!)

How Press Works

Attend weekly meetings: meet with section(s) that you are in

Produce articles, photos, and/or content for your section(s) in a timely manner as stated by editors/managers

Meet content deadlines!

Produce monthly* issues to distribute to SNHU community
